

B. C., Ont., Up, Away

By JACK CONRAD

Ontario and British Columbia continue to dominate lacrosse. Ontario clinched first place in section A and British Columbia has all but clinched the section B leadership.

Quebec holds down second place in section A, and is followed by Nova Scotia, who have a 1-2 record, and Saskatchewan, winless in three starts.

Manitoba kept their chances for a meal alive with a victory over Alberta today, and are in second place behind British Columbia in section B. Manitoba has a 2-1 record.

Alberta holds down third spot at 1-2, while New Brunswick is 0-3.

British Columbia went on a scoring spree trouncing a hopelessly outclassed New Brunswick squad 40-0.

The New Brunswickers were no match in any department for the experienced British Columbia crew. The New Brunswick team began practices only three weeks prior to the Canada Games, and played their first game during the competition here.

Nick Delmonico paced the British Columbia attack, scoring nine goals, while Ron Kulcheski collected seven and Taki Vohalis added six. Rick Ornar netted five goals, Dan Silvester and Steve Matheson notched three each, and Gary Sugiyama and Doug Hayes each collected two.

Bill Clearie, Gaye Kulman and Doug McRae each netted single goals.

Que. 20, N.S. 6

Quebec, displaying a more sophisticated attack, trounced a hard checking Nova Scotia crew, 20-6.

Quebec showed superior passing while Nova Scotia appeared to be disorganized and many of their shots missed the target. Defensively the Nova Scotians allowed the opposition players to break in on the net time after time.

Doug Hons, Jim Colloidy paced the winners with three goals each, while Vince Law, Russell Rice, Robert Cusson, Norman Piche and Arthur Zachary each added a pair. Robert Low, Alain Bougie and Richard Brunet added singles. Wayne Finck paced Nova Scotians with two, while Bob Nauss, Hugh Leadbetter, Don Bruce and Bob Stoddard each notched one.

ONT. 23, SASK 5

Bob Bolitho's six goal performance paced Ontario to a 23-5 win over an inexperienced Saskatchewan team.

Ontario, the class of the "A" section, was far superior defensively and offensively. The outstanding work of 16-year-old Vern Bachiv in the Saskatchewan net prevented the score from reaching astronomical figures. Bachiv turned aside 73 of 96 shots, many of them difficult.

Jim Quigg scored four goals for the winners while Gary Cooper scored three and Jim Little, Greg Barrett, and Peter Murphy each had two. Single tallies went to Bill Nunn, Fred Comeau, Dale McKenzie and John Griffin.

Don Volsky topped the losers with two goals while singles went to Bob Karst, Peter Sonnen and Blaine Schuweiler. The victory all but assured Ontario of first place in the "A" section and a shot at the gold medal.

FIRST PERIOD

Man. 13, Alta 12

A late Alberta drive fell just one goal short and Manitoba walked off with a narrow 13-12 win.

Leading 12-6 early in the final period, the Albertans helped along by opposition penalties, relentlessly closed the gap. Two goals, with less than two minutes left, made the score 13-12 and Manitoba drew another penalty. The crowd was on its feet, the excitement mounted as the clock ticked on but Manitoba goalie Brian Hagart held the fort and time ran out on the fighting Blue from Alberta.

Rich Sedgwick led the winners with three goals while Bruce Hill, Gord Pottinger and Bill Stearns each collected two. Single tallies went to Dale Pancoe, Jim Love, Vince Orchard and John Pirie.

Bill Tayler and Pete Gamble topped the Alberta squad with three goals apiece. Both players were instrumental in the late game drive by the losers. Don Konkolus netted a pair for the Albertans while Barry Konkolus, Larry Davis, Doug Parsons and Jim Burke each got one goal.
